

Activities in Vale, OR Area

Name of Activity	Contact Info	Description	Notes
Scavenger Hunt for the Murals of Vale	Mural Society Email: sknalivka@gmail.com	There are 30 murals scattered around town, some easy to find others require some extra sleuthing (Maps can help). Since 1992 the Mural Society paints a new piece while preserving previous ones.	You will need a map of the town of Vale, can be found at Vale Chamber of Commerce website or at Travel Oregon-Vale website.
Rinehart Stone House	Address: 255 Main Street South Vale, Oregon 97918 Phone: (541) 473-2070	Built in 1872 as the first permanent building in Malheur county. It used to be a wayside stop for travelers until the early 1900's. Now, it has been restored as a museum displaying period relics and photos along with interpretative exhibits about the Oregon Trail.	Open to visitors March 1- October 3, Tuesday-Saturday from 12:30pm to 4pm. Special tours arranged by appointment. Prices not listed
Vale Chamber of Commerce	Address: 252 B St West Vale, Oregon 97918 Phone: (541) 473-3800	The Vale Chamber of Commerce is a non-profit organization whose goal is to support the community of Vale and its trade area.	I looked on the website and there is a list of businesses and events but none listed around the time of the reunion. Some might come up closer to the date as it is a bit away.
Keeney Pass Interpretive Site	Address: Lytle Blvd. Vale, Oregon 97918	Named for pioneer trader Jonathan Keeney, is located on the outskirts of Vale in Eastern Oregon. Today, you can still walk along the original wagon ruts at Keeney Pass and reflects on the famous journey	Free