

Vikings forever

Enterprise photos/Kristine de Léon

A packed house of relatives and friends watches as Vale High School's graduates wait to accept their diplomas in ceremonies last weekend.

The graduation ceremony for seniors at Vale High School was held in the school gym last Sunday. Counterclockwise from left: Alexis Schaffeld stands with fellow classmates who received scholarships; Kimberly Alonso claps after high school principal Mary Jo Sharp gives her address; and co-valedictorian Japheth Carlson speaks to the class from the podium.

See more photos of Malheur County graduates online at malheurenterprise.com

