Members of the Vale Alumni Association are gearing up for their 2019 Hall of Fame Banquet and Auction, after a successful event last year. The 2018 fundraiser netted $29,710. Organizers at a meeting this week voted on nominees for this year's class of Hall of Fame inductees. The association also is planning its annual scholarship awards for Vale High School seniors, with applications accepted through April 4 and interviews planned on April 24-25. At its annual meeting the group elected officers: Brian Wolfe, president; Max Buxton, vice president; Bobbi Buttice, treasurer; Topper Schlupe, secretary; Luke Keller, director; and Sandy Meisinger, alternate director.
